Australia	South Australia	Red	2005	The Ironstone Pressings GSM, d'Arenberg 94/100 - The 2005 The Ironstone Pressings GSM is superb in this top-notch vintage. It exhibits a fragrant bouquet of mineral, earth, truffle, black cherry, plum, and blueberry. Full-bodied as well full-throttled, it offers an extra dimension of complex spicy blue and black fruit flavors, well-concealed tannin, and a seamless, pure finish. Rich enough to be enjoyed now, it will provide pleasure over the next 20 years. - Jay Miller, Wine Advocate	A7396105	£39.50	1	£37.00	£33.30	16%
Australia	South Australia	Red	1983	Penfolds Grange 18.5/20 - Meaty and rich and much livelier than the 1982. Spice and herbs and cough medicine. This vintage is one of Peter Gago's favourites, but for 15 years they didn't show it because the Penfolds high-ups weren't too keen on it. - Jancis Robinson MW	80970183	£400.00	2	£335.00	£301.50	25%
Australia	South Australia	Red	2006	Torbreck Laird, Barossa Valley (Magnum) 99/100 - Deep garnet colored, the 2006 The Laird offers a multi-faceted nose of ripe black berries, blueberry preserves and kirsch aromas with an underlying perfume of baking spices, lavender, cinnamon stick and cloves plus some savory / earthy nuances, including bacon, black tea, tobacco and forest floor. The palate is full bodied and densely packed with fruit, savory and earth flavors while supported by a firm level of very fine-grained tannins and refreshing acidity. It finishes very long and while already incredibly complex, promises a lot more to come. Consider drinking it 2014 to 2026+. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	B3697806	£1,203.00	3	£1,070.00	£963.00	20%

France	Beaujolais	Red	2014	Chiroubles, Domaine Lafarge Vial The Chiroubles tastes of freshly-picked, juicy strawberries and red cherries and has a soft, easy texture. Just the way a Cru Beaujolais ought to taste! Drink 2017-22. Lafarge Vial is the Cru Beaujolais initiative of famed Volnay vigneron, Michel Lafarge. These wines are some of the best Beaujolais I have tasted, but they MUST be decanted to show their true quality. Drinking beautifully already, they can keep for at least another 5-6 years. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	B6450114	£23.00	78	£21.50	£19.35	16%
France	Beaujolais	Red	2014	Fleurie Bel Air, Domaine Lafarge Vial The Fleurie 'Bel Air' has beautifully pure fruit character and silky texture. It is fresh, with long flavours. Drink 2017-23. Lafarge Vial is the Cru Beaujolais initiative of famed Volnay vigneron, Michel Lafarge. These wines are some of the best Beaujolais I have tasted, but they MUST be decanted to show their true quality. France	Beaujolais	Red	2014	Fleurie Clos Vernay, Domaine Lafarge Vial Fleurie 'Clos Vernay' is the deepest and most intense of the trio, and absolutely demands decanting to show at its best. Succulent black cherry fruit is lent complexity by earthy, herbal nuances. Its plump, rounded texture is balanced by fresh acidity. Drink 2017-24+. Lafarge Vial is the Cru Beaujolais initiative of famed Volnay vigneron, Michel Lafarge. These wines are some of the best Beaujolais I have tasted, but they MUST be decanted to show their true quality. France	Bordeaux	Red	2011	Château Montlandrie, Castillon Côtes de Bordeaux A thrilling offering from proprietor Denis Durantou (who also owns Pomerol's l'Eglise-Clinet), this blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Franc is a surprisingly large-scaled Cotes de Bordeaux Castillon revealing a dense ruby/purple color as well as lots of sweet mulberry, kirsch, black currant, licorice, spring flower and graphite notes. Medium to full-bodied as well as remarkably concentrated, this wine outperforms many of Bordeaux's more famous names in this vintage. A stunner in quality and value, it can be enjoyed over the next 10+ years. It is a sleeper of the vintage. Drink 2014-24 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	80566111	£24.50	12	£18.95	£17.06	30%

France	Bordeaux	Red	2006	Chateau Sociando-Mallet, Haut Medoc 89/100 - Château Sociando Mallet displayed a lifted and sprightly bouquet with black fruit, scorched earth, fresh mint and smoky aromas - quasi-Pauillac in style. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin and a keen line of acidity, fresh in the mouth with a saline tincture towards the composed finish. There is impressive freshness here, not overly complex for sure, but it conveys energy. Drink now and over the next decade. Tasted April 2016. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	84670106	£36.50	10	£34.50	£31.05	15%
France	Bordeaux	Red	2006	Chateau Bellevue, St Emilion Grand Cru I was keen to try this, as I had a hunch that with time, the wine would emerge from what Parker described as its 'austere' and 'lean' character in its youth. Tasted in August 2017, the leanness has turned into a defined focus, that brings definition to its maturing gentle spiciness. With a fantastic sense of place, this is a superb wine to drink now and over the next 5+ years. It's also great value. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	C0190106	£45.00	32	£37.50	£33.75	25%
France	Bordeaux	Red	2003	Chateau Beau-Sejour Becot, St Emilion 91/100 - Attractive notes of black currants, fruitcake, cedarwood and loamy soil intermingled with kirsch and blacker fruits emerge from this dense ruby/purple-tinged 2003. Medium- to full-bodied with fully resolved tannins as well as good freshness and precision, it can be enjoyed over the next decade. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E2190103	£62.00	8	£57.50	£51.75	17%
France	Bordeaux	Red	2010	Chateau Clerc Milon, Pauillac 93/100 - The 2010 Clerc Milon has long been a favorite wine of mine. It has a gorgeous bouquet, with black cherries, raspberry preserve and a touch of Italian cured meat—all beautifully defined. The palate is medium-bodied, with supple tannin, very good weight and grip and a keen line of acidity. It is still very backward, with hints of black truffle in a very persistent aftertaste. This is simply one of the finest wines from Clerc Milon in recent years.- Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76760110	£80.00	1	£66.00	£59.40	26%

France	Bordeaux	Red	2005	Château Potensac, Médoc (Magnum) 90/100 - The Château Potensac 2005 sports a clear garnet colour. The nose is modest at first, but nicely defined with blackberry and raspberry fruit, candied orange peel emerging from the background hand in hand with cedar scents. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannin and quite noticeable acidity. Backward and a little surly on the finish, this needs another three or four years to come around. Drink 2018-30 - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	77256805	£85.00	1	£76.00	£68.40	20%
France	Bordeaux	Red	2011	Château Giscours, Margaux (Magnum) 88/100 - A dense ruby/purple color is accompanied by juicy black cherry and black currant fruit notes, a velvety texture and a supple-styled Margaux that consumers will enjoy. It is not a big, powerful, concentrated wine, but it is well-balanced and cleanly as well as correctly executed. This is a stylish, sensual Margaux to drink over the next 10-12 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	76856811	£90.00	9	£80.00	£72.00	20%
France	Bordeaux	Red	2004	Château Cos d'Estournel, St. Estephe 92/100 - A beautiful example of the vintage, proprietor Michel Reybier and his top-notch winemaker, Jean-Guillaume Prats, have fashioned an exceptional wine displaying a dense ruby/purple color as well as a sweet perfume of boysenberries, black currants, cherries, pain grille, roasted herbs, and licorice. Medium-bodied with impressive density for the vintage, sweet tannin, and outstanding richness and length, it should be at its finest between 2009 and 2020+. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	53970104	£120.00	16	£107.00	£96.30	20%

France	Bordeaux	Red	2009	Chateau Ducru Beaucaillou, St Julien 100/100 - The 2009 Ducru Beaucaillou will eclipse the brilliant wines produced in 2005, 2003 and 2000. It will be interesting to see how the 2009 fares against the 2010 after twenty years of aging, but my money is on the 2009. A blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Merlot that achieved 13.5% natural alcohol, this inky purple, unctuous wine possesses classic aromas of graphite, creme de cassis, blueberries, violets, licorice and Christmas fruitcake. Full-bodied and intense with Ducru's inimitable elegance and purity, it should firm up in the bottle after 7-10 years of cellaring and last for 40-50 years. Magnificent! - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	53816109	£219.00	3	£195.00	£175.50	20%

France	Bordeaux	Red	2005	Carruades de Lafite, Pauillac 93/100 - This has a deep ripe plummy nose with good definition and freshness: cedar and blackberry, a tangible sense of mineralite but tightly-coiled. A dense weighty palate, great concentration and vibrant acidity, very focused, lithe, wonderful definition with a lifted cedar finish. No frills, but masterful winemaking is afoot here. Drink 2012-2025. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	67240105	£265.00	1	£220.00	£198.00	25%
France	Bordeaux	Red	2002	Château Ausone, St Emilion 96/100 - This is a beautiful wine. A bouquet surfeit with joie-de-vivre and elan, ripe black cherries, cassis and a touch of damson, but underneath all that precocious fruit is a real, tangible sense of minerality. The palate is silky smooth on the entry with vestiges of creamy oak still to be resolved, wonderful persistency on the licentious finish. Gorgeous! - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76670102	£551.00	1	£490.00	£441.00	20%
France	Bordeaux	Sweet	2001	Château Suduiraut, Sauternes (Half bottle) 98/100 - A prodigious effort, possibly the finest Suduiraut since 1959, the medium gold-colored 2001 offers notes of creme brulee, caramelized citrus, Grand Marnier, honeysuckle, and other exotic fruits as well as a pleasant touch of oak. With terrific acidity, a voluptuous/unctuous palate, and sweet, powerful flavors buttressed by crisp acidity, it is a phenomenal Sauternes. Anticipated maturity: 2010-2040. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	77312401	£39.50	17	£37.50	£33.75	15%

France	Burgundy	White	2013	Chassagne Montrachet 1er Cru La Maltroie, Domaine Bernard Moreau (92-94/100) - the 2013 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru la Maltroie has an expressive and effervescent floral bouquet: citrus fruit, yellow flowers, Clementine and a hint of almond. The palate is crisp on the entry with superb acidity that slices through the intense marmalade-tinged fruit. This has real swagger and wonderful mineral tones toward the finish that fans out. You will be hard pressed to find a Chassagne-Montrachet premier cru better than this in 2013. Chapeau! - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	69970113	£67.50	20	£63.00	£56.70	16%

France	Burgundy	White	2013	Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Clavoillon, Leflaive 91/100 - The 2013 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Clavoillon, which was bottled in June, has a well defined bouquet with flint and light smoky scents with just a hint of quince coming through with aeration. The palate is nicely poised with good weight on the entry, a touch of light honey and mandarin, poised if not persistent on the finish. I would afford this a couple of years in the cellar. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	B8916113	£119.00	1	£106.00	£95.40	20%
France	Burgundy	White	2012	Puligny Montrachet Pucelles, Olivier Leflaive 92/100 - The 2012 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru les Pucelles from Olivier Leflaive has a very refined and delineated bouquet, the new oak present but nicely embroidered into the citrus fruit and underlying mineral notes. The palate is fresh and crisp, quite assertive and spicy, hints of curry leaves towards the finish that is very complex. This is feistier than its counterpart from Anne-Claude Leflaive, less composed and not quite as much finesse. However there is so much going here that it keeps drawing you in. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	B8996112	£210.00	2	£190.00	£171.00	19%

France	Burgundy	Red	2012	Gevrey-Chambertin Mes Favorites, Domaine Alain Burguet Hints of wood and earthy notes on the nose, but dominated by quite ripe berry fruits – red and black. Full and rather voluptuous on the palate, the fruit comes through strongly and rounded, with just a touch of the earthiness adding complexity. Long finish. Not necessarily typical, less subtle than some – though given that it's from Gevrey-Chambertin I suppose a fuller, more concentrated wine is to be expected. - Oliver Coleman, Retail Sales	B6490112	£44.00	112	£40.00	£36.00	18%

France	Burgundy	Red	2006	Volnay 1er Cru Mitans, Michel Lafarge 92/100 - Freshness of (raspberry and red cherry) fruit and a lively and intricate interplay with alkaline, chalky, saline, zesty citrus oil and spicy elements are strikingly displayed, but there is a polished texture and subtly soothing, mouth-coating sweetness of fruit to match all of this wine's energy. The sense of lift – near delicacy – here is uncanny in view of its simultaneous ability to caress the palate and to convey a sense of mineral extract. Nor can wafting floral high tones or emerging suggestions of marrow-rich meat stock and noble mushrooms be overlooked in this multi-registered performance, which should continue to be memorably delicious for at least a decade. - David Schildknecht, Wine Advocate	B6566106	£66.00	26	£59.00	£53.10	20%
France	Burgundy	Red	2014	Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Lavaux St Jacques, Domaine Harmand Geoffroy Again, this wine demonstrates the 'Grand Cru in all but name' standing of the Lavaux St Jacques vineyard, and the superb unsung consistency of Harmand-Geoffroy as a producer. There is fabulous concentration of cassis fruit on the nose, with hints of woodsmoke and beef stock. Lovely freshness and generosity of texture, with a winemaking finesse in the same league as Anne Gros - intense yet understated. Superb. A wine of great intensity, it boasts thrilling aromas of orange marmalade, nectarine liqueur, honeysuckle, peaches, and apricots. Stunningly rich with full body, terrific acidity, and a finish that lasts 45+ seconds, this is an amazing achievement. It should drink well for 7-8 years, shut down or become oxidized, then, hopefully, re-emerge at around age 12-15, and drink in a completely different fashion for several decades thereafter. - Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate	B6786107	£106.00	5	£94.00	£84.60	20%

France	Rhône	Red	2005	St Joseph Lautaret, Domaine Durand 91/100 - I also loved the 2005 St Joseph Cuvee Lautaret, which is 100% Syrah that was completely destemmed, vinified in concrete tanks and aged all in barrel. Still youthfully purple in color, with clean notes of black currants, lead pencils shavings, smoked meats and licorice, it has outstanding purity, beautiful fruit and a rich, full mid-palate that will keep it drinking nicely for another 5-7 years. France	Rhône	Red	2005	Côte Rotie, Cote Rozier, Domaine Bonnefond Five stars - dark cherry colour; there is a vibe of chunky black fruit on the nose, but plenty of potential, with a game/gibier note. The palate is similar – black fruits with a clean-cut tone, they are nice and wide, and persist well. Really good, this palate – dark flavours with genuine length and excellent core richness. STGT in the making actually, once the oak is absorbed, so rich is it. France	Rhône	Red	1996	Hermitage La Chapelle, P. Jaboulet Aine 92/100 - The 1996 Hermitage La Chapelle is immensely impressive. The acidity is high. The color is black/purple, and the wine is extremely concentrated, but unevolved and impossible to penetrate. It could turn out like the 1983 and never develop as well as its early promise suggests. Nevertheless, it is a massive effort with extraordinary concentration, but the high acidity requires a minimum of 10 years of cellaring. France	Rhône	Red	2005	Chateauneuf Cuvee Laurence, Domaine Pegau 97/100 - The 2005 Châteauneuf du Pape Cuvee Laurence is terrific, and is certainly the finest release since the '98 and '01. The same blend as the classic cuvee (85% Grenache, 10% Syrah and the rest Mourvèdre and other varieties), it spent a full 48 months in old foudre prior to bottling. Gorgeously complex, with soaring garrigue, saddle leather, beef blood, iron and distinct minerality, this beauty is full-bodied, rich and layered on the palate, with a massive amount of fruit and tannin. Intense, Provencal, layered and decadent, enjoy this beauty over the coming 10-15 years. Drink 2015-30. - Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate	C6950105	£109.00	26	£100.00	£90.00	17%
Germany	Mosel	Sweet	2010	Scharzhofberger Auslese, Egon Muller 94/100 - ...an elixir of remarkable levity, refinement, and polished textural allure. What's more, the flavors now shift toward honey, white raisin, salted caramel, and quince preserves, unabashedly exhibiting these grapes' noble botrytization. And even despite what I am sure are enormously high acids, these act only as hidden, energizing springs until the finish kicks in with overt citricity that help leaven and balance the wines liqueur-like texture and sweetness. I think we can safely presume a quarter-century's strong performance here. - David Schildknecht, Wine Advocate	C6906110	£335.00	6	£280.00	£252.00	25%
Germany	Mosel	Sweet	2010	Scharzhofberger Goldkapsel Auslese, Egon Muller 96/100 - Headily perfumed essences of lily and gardenia waft from the glass of Muller 2010 Scharzhofberger Riesling Auslese gold capsule, which then surprises the palate with its relative sense of firmness but displays an explosively intense alliance of fresh lime and white peach nectar laced with pungent raw ginger and saline, somehow shimmering, crystalline mineral matter. The combination of near liqueur-like richness with scintillating energy on display here is unforgettable, and surely likely to carry this for four decades or more. - David Schildknecht, Wine Advocate	C6916110	£535.00	6	£445.00	£400.50	25%

Italy	Piemonte	Red	2004	Sori Tildin, Langhe Rosso, Gaja 97/100 - Gaja's 2004 Sori Tildin floats on the palate. It is the most nuanced of these single-vineyard offerings, with gorgeous notes of tar, smoke, roses, violets, sweet toasted oak and earthiness that emerge from the glass in a counterpoint of sublime elegance and stunning purity. It possesses superb length and elegant, silky tannins to round out the finish. Italy	Piemonte	Red	2001	Barbaresco Rabajà, Bruno Giacosa 95/100 - The 2001 Barbaresco Rabaja is simply the greatest wine from this vineyard I have ever tasted. Superbly rich with a potent nose of plums, dried roses, leather, resin, and spice, it is equally impressive in flavor, intense, warm, and concentrated, the packed texture and virile tannins perfectly balanced by the roundness of the texture and the polish of the finish. Italy	Piemonte	Red	2004	Barbaresco Asili, Bruno Giacosa 98/100 - The 2004 Barbaresco Riserva Asili is even more compelling than the Rabaja. It floats on the palate with an ethereal core of sweet fruit that calls to mind a profound Musigny, but with the unmistakable structure of Nebbiolo. The perfumed purity of the fruit carries all the way through to the deeply satisfying, resonating finish. Made in a soft, seductive style, this remarkable wine is decidedly more approachable and easy to appreciate today than the Rabaja. Giacosa fans will have a great time discussing the merits of the Rabaja and the Asili in 2004, but to me they are virtually equally moving; Asili for its feminine gracefulness and Rabaja for its size and power. The Asili should prove more accessible at an earlier age. Bruno Giacosa says his 2004 Asili Riserva will turn out to be just like his 2000 Asili Riserva, the wine he still thinks is the best he's ever made. Italy	Tuscany	Red	2014	Le Serre Nuove, Tenuta dell'Ornellaia 90/100 - The 2014 Bolgheri Rosso Le Serre Nuove is a lush and well measured red wine that does not shy back in terms of intensity. Neither does it overachieve in that department. This blend of 34% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Merlot, 9% Cabernet Franc and 7% Petit Verdot marches to a steady pace with good fruit definition followed by spice, leather and fresh tobacco leaf. The wine does flaunt its youth and charm. There is a touch of tannic tightness or sourness on the close that should relax within a year or two. - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate	E2146114	£37.00	3	£33.00	£29.70	20%
Italy	Tuscany	Red	2010	Tignanello Antinori 94/100 - Humming with energy and life from the very moment you put your nose in the glass, Marchesi Antinori's 2010 Tignanello shows magnificent aromatic layering and an enormous capacity to peel back and reveal itself in beautiful slow motion. This is an articulate wine with a long story to tell about the quality of its profound 2010 fruit. This Tignanello has the elegance of 2004 and the structure of 2007. A brief note on the structure: The mouthfeel here is not broad and big. Instead, it shows a sharp and elegantly streamlined feel with impressive persistency. Compared to 2009, the Sangiovese component is slightly higher with 80% of the noble Tuscan variety followed by 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Cabernet Franc. The bouquet opens beautifully with heady scents of clove, ginger, small red cherries, bergamot and allspice, displaying exquisite definition and harmony. The palate follows suit with lovely balance and poise in the mouth, notes of kirsch, shaved ginger and walnut building to an opulent, viscous finish that lacquers the mouth. USA	California	Red	2007	Calera, Pinot Noir, Mills, Mt Harlan 95/100 - From a 13.1-acre vineyard planted in 1997, the 2007 Pinot Noir Mills Vineyard was cropped at an absurdly low .84 tons of fruit per acre. This beauty offers up notes of forest floor, raspberries, fresh mushrooms, sweet currants, and meat juices. The provocative, riveting aromatics are followed by a medium to full-bodied wine with sweet tannins, dense, chewy, lush fruit, good acidity, and a 40-second finish. Drink this profound Pinot Noir over the next decade or more. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	C8196107	£103.00	1	£89.00	£80.10	22%
USA	California	Red	2012	SLV Cabernet Sauvignon, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Napa 92/100 - The 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon S.L.V. is a paragon of elegance and finesse, yet doesn't cheat the taster on flavor. Dense ruby/purple with round, juicy, earthy black cherry and blackcurrant fruit, underbrush and forest floor, the wine is fragrant, medium to full-bodied, soft, seductive and round. This is a lovely, juicy, pure style of wine to drink over the next 10-15 years. - Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate	A8976112	£115.00	34	£96.00	£86.40	25%

USA	California	Red	2009	Rhys Pinot Noir, Horseshoe Vineyard, Santa Cruz Mountains 94/100 - The 2009 Pinot Noir Horseshoe Vineyard is the most virile wine in this lineup. Black cherries, mint, iron and crushed rocks come together in this dramatic, generous Pinot. The fleshiness of the fruit nearly covers the tannins, but they are lurking beneath the wine's considerable fleshiness. Menthol, pine and a host of other dark, balsamic notes wrap around the insistent, powerful finish. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024. - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate	B2656109	£130.00	2	£111.00	£99.90	23%

USA	California	Red	2005	Pax, Agharta Syrah, North Coast 95+/100 - After the mind-blowing 2004 Agharta Syrah, I had high expectations that it would be followed by additional great wines, and those hopes were answered with the 2005 Black Label, a blend of 97% Syrah, 2% Grenache and 1% Viognier. Aged 64 months (which must be a record in California) in 30% new French oak, it is another spectacular effort from winemaker/proprietor Pax Mahle. It boasts a gorgeously dense plum/purple color as well as stunning notes of black raspberries, gun flint, blackberries, licorice and camphor. This complex red builds incrementally on the palate resulting in a full-bodied, concentrated, complex wine that is bursting at the seams and loaded with potential. It should continue to evolve for another 12-15+ years. Drink 2011-26 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	B2566105	£131.00	5	£116.00	£104.40	20%
USA	California	Red	2008	Chateau Montelena Cabernet Sauvignon Estate Napa Valley 92/100 - The 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate is a gorgeous, mid-weight wine laced with mint, cassis, sweet herbs and tobacco. It is an understated, gracious wine from start to finish. This is a relatively approachable vintage for the Estate. It shows tons of finesse and mid-palate generosity while maintaining a medium-bodied personality. Today it is quite young, although it is drinking well. Readers who prefer more tertiary notes will want to cellar the wine for at least a few years. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2028. - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate	B2946108	£136.00	2	£121.00	£108.90	20%
USA	California	Red	2002	Cakebread Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley, Benchland Select 91+/100 - Even at age ten, the 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon Benchland Select (86% Cabernet Sauvignon and 14% Malbec) is reserved, displaying a deep ruby/purple color along with hints of plums, sweet espresso roast, subtle toast/smoky new oak and a darker black currant note. Medium-bodied and elegant, with sweet tannin, copious layers, and a long, intense finish, it tastes more like a 3- to 5-year-old Napa Cabernet rather than one that's a decade old. It should improve over the next ten years and last for 30 years. Drink 2012-42 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	C8176102	£136.00	2	£121.00	£108.90	20%

USA	California	Red	2004	Dominus, Napa Valley, Christian Moueix 97/100 - Like so many 2004s, the 2004 Dominus is a full-bodied wine showing brilliantly at age ten, with loads of complex cedar, kirsch, Christmas fruitcake, black currants and spice box. It has a creamy, opulent texture, but remains light on its feet. This sexy wine is showing exceptionally well and is best drunk over the next 10-15 years. Not one of the longest-lived wines from Dominus, but it is certainly at a wonderful point in its evolution right now. Drink 2014-29 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	78580104	£146.00	1	£138.00	£124.20	15%
USA	California	Red	2003	Philip Togni Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley 95+/100 - For those who don't know, Togni has always made an uncompromising Cabernet meant for 20, 30, maybe even 40 or more years of cellaring. Gorgeously rich notes of black olives, black currants, graphite and wood smoke jump from the glass of this dense ruby/purple-colored, Medoc-styled 2003. At age ten, it displays a youthfulness similar to a 4- to 5-year-old wine. The finish is long, convincing and rich. It is reminiscent of a Spring Mountain version of a hybrid blend of St-Julien and Pauillac. Unique to Napa and as distinctive as Philip Togni himself, it will benefit from another 4-5 years of cellaring and should last longer than your author. By the way, my cellar includes many vintages of Togni, and I rarely touch them before they hit 15 years of age. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	C8236103	£160.00	6	£150.00	£135.00	16%
USA	California	Red	2012	Fay Cabernet Sauvignon, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Napa (Magnum) 94/100 - The 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Fay Vineyard boasts loads of black cherry and black raspberry fruit, a floral characteristic common to this terroir, a beautiful deep ruby/purple color, sweet tannin and a dramatic, lush, Margaux-like finish. This is sexy, lush, full-throttle wine to drink over the next 10-15 years. - Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate	A8956812	£225.00	49	£175.00	£157.50	30%

USA	California	Red	2013	Cask 23 Cabernet Sauvignon, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Napa 99/100 - The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Cask 23 ratchets up the level of complexity, richness and density. Magnificent floral notes intermix with blueberry, blackberry and cassis, and there is no hint of new oak. A full-bodied opulence on the palate, great purity and personality make for a prodigious example of Cabernet Sauvignon to drink over the next 30+ years. Kudos to Stags Leap Wine Cellars. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	A8966113	£225.00	1	£199.00	£179.10	20%

USA	California	Red	2008	Dunn Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain 98+/100 - The 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain takes things to another level, as hard as it may seem to believe. This was another difficult vintage for Dunn. Yields were down a full 50%. In exchange, nature rewarded Dunn with the fruit to make an epic wine that could very well turn out to be a modern-day legend. The 2008 is a huge, towering wine packed with dark fruit, licorice, tar, asphalt and licorice. Layers of perfume are woven throughout this majestic effort. The 2008 should only be purchased by the very patient, but it is a legendary wine in the making. Anticipated maturity: 2028-2043. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	B3016108	£261.00	3	£233.00	£209.70	20%
USA	California	Red	2007	Joseph Phelps, Insignia, Napa Valley 99/100 - Aged 24 months in new French oak, this infant 2007 exhibits an inky/purple color along with notes of graphite, spring flowers and smoky oak. This full-bodied, classic Insignia reveals fabulous depth, ripeness, texture, viscosity and richness. Still young and unformed, it should evolve for 25 or more years. Drink 2013-38 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	B2436107	£299.00	1	£265.00	£238.50	20%
