Argentina	Mendoza		Red	2005	Magdalena Toso 33 Barrels Established in 1890, Pascual Toso has become one of the most exciting and promising Argentine wineries. Magdalena Toso is a very special selection, representing the best quality of each harvest - a complex, deep and elegant red wine with great finesse. Malbec, combined with a touch of the best Cabernet Sauvignon. - Winemaker's notes	F1756105	75	£49.50	9
Australia	South Australia	Barossa	Red	2006	Torbreck, Laird 99/100 - Deep garnet colored, the 2006 The Laird offers a multi-faceted nose of ripe black berries, blueberry preserves and kirsch aromas with an underlying perfume of baking spices, lavender, cinnamon stick and cloves plus some savory / earthy nuances, including bacon, black tea, tobacco and forest floor. The palate is full bodied and densely packed with fruit, savory and earth flavors while supported by a firm level of very fine-grained tannins and refreshing acidity. It finishes very long and while already incredibly complex, promises a lot more to come. Consider drinking it 2014 to 2026+. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	B3696206	75	£360.00	6
Australia	South Australia	Barossa Valley	Red	2006	Amon-Ra Shiraz, Glaetzer 95/100 - the 2006 Amon-Ra Shiraz gives a very deep purple-black color and earthy, gamey aromas of forest floor, moss covered bark, Peking duck skin, mulberries, dried plums, blackberry preserves, incense, cinnamon stick and cloves. Very crisp, concentrated and full with medium-firm velvety tannins, it presents a slightly warm yet long and engaging finish. It's approachable now and should continue to develop, drinking to 2022+. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	67846106	75	£69.50	1	1

Australia	South Australia	McLaren Vale	Red	2005	The Ironstone Pressings GSM, d'Arenberg 94/100 - The 2005 The Ironstone Pressings GSM is superb in this top-notch vintage. It exhibits a fragrant bouquet of mineral, earth, truffle, black cherry, plum, and blueberry. Full-bodied as well full-throttled, it offers an extra dimension of complex spicy blue and black fruit flavors, well-concealed tannin, and a seamless, pure finish. Rich enough to be enjoyed now, it will provide pleasure over the next 20 years. - Jay Miller, Wine Advocate	A7396105	75	£39.50	13
Australia	South Australia	McLaren Vale	Red	2006	Clarendon Hills, Hickinbotham Syrah, Clarendon 97+/100 - The 2006 Syrah Hickinbotham Vineyard combines a voluptuous flavor profile with enough ripe tannin to evolve for 6-8 years. Drink it from 2015 to 2031. Roman Bratasiuk's Clarendon Hills is one of the world's great wine estates.- Jay Miller, Wine Advocate	C0376106	75	£47.00	18
Australia	South Australia		Red	1983	Penfolds Grange 92/100 - A deep garnet hue. Very sweet on the nose like the 1982 but more obvious and less nuanced: cassis and shoe-polish, with iodine developing. The palate is very smooth, a little meaty with blueberry and cassis on the extravagant almost Tuscan-like finish. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	80970183	75	£400.00	1	1

Australia	Victoria	Rutherglen	Sweet	NV	Rare Rutherglen Muscadelle, Chambers 98/100 - The NV Rosewood Vineyards Rare Muscadelle has a deep brown color with a hint of green in the rim. The nose has a complex, oxidative, almost oloroso character giving notes of roasted walnuts, dark chocolate, burnt coffee and toffee. The palate is so crisp in acidity that the unbelievable level of sweetness and viscosity is infinitely drinkable. Layer upon layer of spice and nut flavors develop into the very long finish. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	635206NV	37.5	£125.00	8	1
Australia	Victoria	Rutherglen	Sweet	NV	Rare Rutherglen Muscat, Chambers 99/100 - Tasted again in March 2016, the NV Rare Muscat has a deep brown color with a distinctive green tinge to the rim. The nose is, in a word, incredible and terribly difficult to describe, which is a great thing. Rancio doesn't begin to capture the complex, oxidative signature: honey coated walnuts, molasses, dates, sandalwood, baking spices, old chesterfields, aniseed and potpourri with fleeting, ethereal wafts of incense, roasted nut and exotic spice notes. Rich, unctuous and gratuitously multi-layered, this is one for the hedonists. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	635106NV	37.5	£165.00	1	1
France	Alsace	Ribeauvillé	White	1990	Riesling Cuvée Frédéric Emile, Vendange Tardive, Trimbach The 'Vendange Tardive' version of Cuvée Frédéric Emile is an extremely rare wine. Made only in vintages where harvest conditions permit, and then only in tiny quantities, it combines the piercingly bright definition of the bone dry version with vendange tardive rounded sumptuosness (but not overt sweetness). The 1990 Riesling Frederic Emile Vendange Tardive is very ripe and overripe on the nose, clear. Very intense and mineral on the palate with a lot of tension and minerals, as well as grip and phenolics, but also finesse and freshness. Very good length and firm structure. Great grip and length, and slightly austere. - Stephan Reinhardt, Wine Advocate	A3376190	75	£135.00	11

France	Alsace	Ribeauvillé	Sweet	1983	Riesling Cuvée Frédéric Emile, Vendange Tardive, Trimbach The 'Vendange Tardive' version of Cuvée Frédéric Emile is an extremely rare wine. Made only in vintages where harvest conditions permit, and then only in tiny quantities, it combines the piercingly bright definition of the bone dry version with vendange tardive rounded sumptuosness (but not overt sweetness). There are intense and fresh peach aromas on the nose, very elegant and spicy, of the 1983 Riesling Frederic Emile Vendange Tardive. It is highly mineral and almost dry, with grip, tension and a concentrated peach fruit flavor. Dense and tightly structured. Excellent. - Stephan Reinhardt, Wine Advocate	A3376183	75	£165.00	12	1

France	Beaujolais	Chiroubles	Red	2014	Chiroubles, Domaine Lafarge Vial The Chiroubles tastes of freshly-picked, juicy strawberries and red cherries and has a soft, easy texture. Just the way a Cru Beaujolais ought to taste! Drink 2017-22. Lafarge Vial is the Cru Beaujolais initiative of famed Volnay vigneron, Michel Lafarge. These wines are some of the best Beaujolais I have tasted, but they MUST be decanted to show their true quality. Drinking beautifully already, they can keep for at least another 5-6 years. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	B6450114	75	£26.50	59	9
France	Beaujolais	Fleurie	Red	2014	Fleurie Clos Vernay, Domaine Lafarge Vial Fleurie 'Clos Vernay' is the deepest and most intense of the trio, and absolutely demands decanting to show at its best. Succulent black cherry fruit is lent complexity by earthy, herbal nuances. Its plump, rounded texture is balanced by fresh acidity. Drink 2017-24+. Lafarge Vial is the Cru Beaujolais initiative of famed Volnay vigneron, Michel Lafarge. France	Bordeaux	Castillon	Red	2011	Château Montlandrie, Castillon Côtes de Bordeaux A thrilling offering from proprietor Denis Durantou (who also owns Pomerol's l'Eglise-Clinet), this blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Franc is a surprisingly large-scaled Cotes de Bordeaux Castillon revealing a dense ruby/purple color as well as lots of sweet mulberry, kirsch, black currant, licorice, spring flower and graphite notes. Medium to full-bodied as well as remarkably concentrated, this wine outperforms many of Bordeaux's more famous names in this vintage. A stunner in quality and value, it can be enjoyed over the next 10+ years. It is a sleeper of the vintage. Drink 2014-24 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	80566111	75	£24.50	6	6

France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2005	Château Citran, Cru Bourgeois, Haut Médoc 87/100 - This is an equal-part blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Good, dense fruit as well as some toasty new oak and spice jump from the glass of this dark ruby/purple-colored wine. Approachable and showing well, this 2005 is medium to full-bodied, ripe and very well-made. Drink it over the next 10-15 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6170105	75	£33.50	120

France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2006	Château Cambon La Pelouse, Haut-Médoc 87/100 - This large vineyard in Macau (near Cantemerle and Giscours, not Hong Kong) produces a blend of 50% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon, 13% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Petit Verdot. It is a consistent choice among shrewd wine consumers looking for good value from Bordeaux. The deep ruby-colored 2006 exhibits sweet red and black currant aromas intermixed with notions of toasty oak, damp earth, and spice. Richly fruity, soft, and round, it is best drunk over the next 3-4 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6150106	75	£26.50	60
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2006	Chateau Sociando-Mallet, Haut Medoc 89/100 - Château Sociando Mallet displayed a lifted and sprightly bouquet with black fruit, scorched earth, fresh mint and smoky aromas - quasi-Pauillac in style. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin and a keen line of acidity, fresh in the mouth with a saline tincture towards the composed finish. There is impressive freshness here, not overly complex for sure, but it conveys energy. Drink now and over the next decade. Tasted April 2016. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	84670106	75	£39.50	10	10
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2007	Chateau Sociando-Mallet, Haut Medoc 87/100 - The 2007 Sociando-Mallet has a pleasing sense of mineralité and delineation on the nose: nicely focused with attractive rose petal scents. The palate is brisk on the entry with rigid tannin, quite savory with a gravelly, masculine and tobacco finish. It's a little rough around the edges, but it should drink well for the next 5-7 years. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	84676107	75	£39.50	36
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2009	Les Allées de Cantemerle, Haut Médoc The second wine of Château Cantemerle, this has the same personality and yet is ready to be consumed sooner. In great vintages like 2009, second wines can be really smart buys. Drink 2017-2019.	E6160109	75	£29.50	120

France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2009	Château Fourcas Hosten, Listrac 17/20 - Full and firm and dramatic. Really nicely balanced. Polished tannins. Appetising. Seems like the sort of wine that should be a pleasure to drink all its life. The best Fourcas Hosten I can remember tasting. Is this down to the new owners or the vintage? - Jancis Robinson MW, JancisRobinson.com	E6180109	75	£36.50	24
France	Bordeaux	Haut-Médoc	Red	2000	Château Cantemerle, Haut-Médoc 17/20 - Still very deep with the merest hint of ruby and paleness at the rim. Very subtle nose – lures you in but there is no hint of overripeness here, rather a hidden message. Fresh and succulent with hints of tea and toast but very subtle ones. Really quite delicate and beautifully balanced. Neat, medium finish. - Jancis Robinson MW, JancisRobinson.com	80660100	75	£69.50	12
France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2004	Château d'Angludet, Margaux 89/100 - I'm not sure this amazing effort doesn't deserve an outstanding score. A big, flamboyant nose of melted licorice, creme de cassis, smoke, and charcoal is accompanied by deep, opulent, fleshy flavors, low acidity, ripe tannin, and abundant glycerin and fruit. Enjoy this sleeper of the vintage now and over the next 12-15 years. It is sexy stuff! - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6140104	75	£45.00	24
France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2004	Château Giscours, Margaux 91/100 - It has a very pleasant bouquet with ripe blackcurrant, raspberry coulis, mineral and light violet scents that blossom nicely in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin. This is not a complex Giscours, more conservative and a little austere. Yet you have to commend the freshness and the finesse towards the finish, as it delivers delicate tarry notes on the aftertaste. Drinking perfectly now, you could cellar this for the next 10-15 years.- Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76850104	75	£67.50	11	11

France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2005	Château Labégorce, Margaux 91/100 - The '05 Labégorce is adorned with a ripe, well defined nose, quite delicate with blackberry, plum and boysenberry - elegant and feminine. The palate has a soft ripe entry, rounded and supple in texture although not inherently a complex Margaux, but well crafted. The finish has a nice poise but it is still backward, so give this 'coquettish' wine time to mature. Drink 2013-2025. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	E6200105	75	£39.50	24

France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2007	Château Giscours, Margaux 88/100 - 2007 Giscours has a pleasant mulberry, strawberry and orange blossom-scented bouquet, with the Merlot component quite expressive and lending a Right Bank-like veneer. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin, plenty of truffle-infused black fruit with a vein of pencil lead on the finish. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76850107	75	£65.00	24

France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2011	Château d'Issan, 3ème Cru Classé, Margaux A blend of 69% Cabernet Sauvignon and 31% Merlot, it possesses a dark ruby/purple color as well as a classic Margaux perfume of sweet blueberries, black currants, spring flowers and licorice. Ripe and deep with impressive intensity, it is one of the stars of the 2011 vintage. The wine's silky tannins, fresh acids and stunning length suggest it will drink well for 15-20 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	30006811	150	£150.00	5	1
France	Bordeaux	Moulis	Red	2008	Château Chasse-Spleen, Médoc 89/100 - The Chasse Spleen 2008 has an elegant, well-knit bouquet with impressive purity: blackberry, briary, wild hedgerow and a touch of autumn leaves. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, very elegant with expressive Merlot counterbalancing the austerity of the Cabernet. It is a little foursquare towards the finish but is endowed with decent length and fine precision. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	75850108	75	£47.50	84

France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2004	Château Pontet-Canet, Pauillac 93/100 - Blackberry, black plum, violets, a touch of undergrowth, liquorice and there in the background is a mote of hoi sin. Superb definition and very refined, developing a candied bouquet with time. The palate is medium-bodied, very pure with superb tension. There are notes of blackberry, cassis, blueberry and bilberry, wonderful balance, but the finish is still tannic and tightly-coiled. This is a Pauillac with real panache and style... - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	77240104	75	£89.50	9	9
France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2004	Château Pichon Longueville Baron, Pauillac 94/100 - This is a great, great 2004 – a huge success for Christian Seely in a more challenging growing season than the ensuing one. A soaring blackberry, blueberry, cedar and wild strawberry nose with a touch of violets. Very fine tannins on the full-bodied palate, superb focus, elegant and feminine with a touch of burst toast and graphite on the finish. Great persistency. Quintessential Pauillac – at its finest. Drink 2012-2025. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	35110104	75	£140.00	12
France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2005	Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste, Pauillac 97/100 - The Château Grand Puy Lacoste 2005 has a brilliant, classic pencil-lead nose that is Pauillac through and through. There is no messin' about here. The palate is very well defined with wonderful acidity, great depth of black fruit with an astonishingly precise finish that just takes your breath away. Is it the best 2005 of the vintage? Not quite, but it belongs in the top tier. And factor in value for money, I would be happy sitting on a big pile of this in my cellar to drink over the rest of my lifetime and the afterlife if that exists too. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76260105	75	£150.00	12
France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2005	Carruades de Lafite, Pauillac 93/100 - This has a deep ripe plummy nose with good definition and freshness: cedar and blackberry, a tangible sense of mineralite but tightly-coiled. A dense weighty palate, great concentration and vibrant acidity, very focused, lithe, wonderful definition with a lifted cedar finish. No frills, but masterful winemaking is afoot here. France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2005	Chateau Latour, Pauillac, Double Magnum 98/100 - The 2005 Latour has long been a formidable wine...Now at twelve years of age, it has retained that riveting bouquet of black cherries and black plum, crème de cassis and graphite...The palate is very well balanced with blackberry, black plum, sea salt, a hint of balsamic, quite spicy in the mouth with a hint of cloves. There is immense weight and presence in the mouth, although I wonder whether the tannins are as fine as say the 2010 or even the nascent 2016 Latour tasted alongside? Either way, it remains a fabulous First Growth destined to last many, many years. Drink 2020-2065 - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	31443305	300	£4,540.00	1
France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2009	Château Pichon Longueville Lalande, Pauillac 94/100 - The Pichon Lalande '09 has a far more understated bouquet with black cherries, pencil shavings, cedar and mint - classic Pauillac in other words, but very intense and precise. The palate is understated on the entry. France	Bordeaux	Pessac-Léognan	Red	2010	La Chapelle de la Mission Haut Brion, Pessac Leognan 93/100 - The 2010 La Chapelle de la Mission, which includes the production from the now-extinct La Tour Haut-Brion vineyard, is a blend of 47% Cabernet Sauvignon, 27% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc, which is a high percentage for the latter grape. Fleshy, succulent and opulent along the lines of the 2009 (which did surprise me), it is a big wine, with boatloads of glycerin and a classic Graves character of scorched earth, burning embers, charcoal, and plenty of black cherry and black currant fruit. The glycerin level is high, the fruit level impressive, and the purity and texture endearing. Drink it over the next 15 or so years. – Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	C0580110	75	£120.00	1	1

France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2005	Château Yon-Figeac, St Emilion Grand Cru 91/100 - From a 62-acre vineyard on the Pomerol border, planted in the sandy, gravelly sector of St.-Emilion, the final blend of this 2005 was 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc. A strong effort with lots of black cherry and blackcurrant fruit, some licorice and forest floor, the wine is medium to full-bodied, supple, and impressively endowed. The color is a deep, youthful purple/plum. Drink it over the next 10-12 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6226105	75	£47.50	36
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2006	Château Bellevue, St Emilion Grand Cru I was keen to try this, as I had a hunch that with time, the wine would emerge from what Parker described as its 'lean' character in its youth. Tasted in August 2017, the leanness has turned into a defined focus, that brings definition to its maturing gentle spiciness. With a fantastic sense of place, this is a superb wine to drink now and over the next 5+ years. It's also great value. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	C0190106	75	£39.50	93	9
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2007	Château Ausone, St Emilion 94/100 - The 2007 Ausone is a candidate for one of the wines of the vintage, rivaling Pavié and Lafite Rothschild. Its deep ruby/purple hue is accompanied by a beautiful nose of spring flowers, raspberries, black currants, and crushed rocks. The wine is dense, medium to full-bodied, and pure with sweet tannin as well as a surprisingly evolved, forward style. It is one of the few Ausones I have tasted that can be drunk with great pleasure at this stage, yet it promises to evolve for two decades. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	76676107	75	£465.00	5
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2008	Chateau Canon, St Emilion 92/100 - Ever since its showing out of barrel, the Chateau Canon 2008 has been on an upward trajectory. Here, it displays fine mineralite on the nose, very precise with black rather than red fruit with great delineation, notes of iodine emerging. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannins, pure dark berry fruit with a touch of spice, focused with a symmetrical finish. This is very assured and just delicious. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	B8890108	75	£99.50	24

France	Bordeaux	St Estèphe	Red	2004	Château Cos d'Estournel, St. Estephe 94/100 - This Cos d'Estournel has great potential. The nose has certainly closed down since I last tasted it at en primeur, less floral and more tertiary with a surly broody quality. Cedar and a hint of dark chocolate coming through with aeration, roasted herbs. Very well defined. The full-bodied palate is very tannic structure with a solidity that suggests extended cellaring is mandatory. This Cos d'Estournel is powerful and masculine, yet with wonderful freshness and vitality and a slight savoury tang evolving with further aeration on the persistent finish. Drink 2018-2035+ - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	53970104	75	£120.00	2	2
France	Bordeaux	St. Emilion	Red	2005	Château Monbousquet, St. Emilion 94/100 - A beautiful effort from Monbousquet, this 2005 comes across to me as one of their strongest efforts, with notes of toasty oak, black cherry and blackcurrant fruit as well as some licorice, incense and flowers. Full-bodied and opulent, this is an amazing wine from a terroir on the so-called "wrong side" of St.-Emilion. Drink it over the next 15 or more years. It is an amazing performance. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	80770105	75	£125.00	12
France	Bordeaux	St. Estephe	Red	2003	Château Cos Labory, St. Estephe 91/100 - I had forgotten how impressive this was from barrel. There is just a little sur-maturite on the nose: plum, blackberry, a touch of prune in the background. The palate has a soft entry, very plush and generous with layers of toasty black fruit with tar and sous-bois. Soft landing on the finish. Modern in style, but not ostentatious and retaining Saint Estephe typicity. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76790103	75	£46.50	24
France	Bordeaux	St. Estephe	Red	2005	Château Lafon Rochet, St. Estephe 92/100 - This has a fine blackberry, cedar-infused nose with good definition - tightly coiled and certainly needing more time. Very good concentration, fine tannins, quite succulent for a Saint Estephe but very well poised with fine sense of mineralite on the finish. Imbued with femininity, which is unusual. Good depth and cohesion. This remains an excellent Lafon-Rochet although its still needs time. Drink 2015-2025. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	77100105	75	£75.00	36

France	Bordeaux	St-Julien	Red	2009	Chateau Ducru Beaucaillou, St Julien 100/100 - The 2009 Ducru Beaucaillou will eclipse the brilliant wines produced in 2005, 2003 and 2000. It will be interesting to see how the 2009 fares against the 2010 after twenty years of aging, but my money is on the 2009. A blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Merlot that achieved 13.5% natural alcohol, this inky purple, unctuous wine possesses classic aromas of graphite, creme de cassis, blueberries, violets, licorice and Christmas fruitcake. Full-bodied and intense with Ducru's inimitable elegance and purity, it should firm up in the bottle after 7-10 years of cellaring and last for 40-50 years. Magnificent! - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	53816109	75	£219.00	2	2
France	Bordeaux	Sauternes	Sweet	2005	Château d'Yquem, Sauternes 96/100 - Tasted at the property 12 months on from my last visit, my note for the Château d'Yquem 2005 is almost exactly the same. I feel that there is still just a little new oak to be resolved on the nose. But the palate is extremely well balanced, perhaps just a little nuttier than I remember from 12 months ago, with hints of white chocolate and crème brûlée just appearing on the finish. This needs another decade, but it is a very serious Yquem in the making. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	23140605	37.5	£195.00	10	10
France	Bordeaux	Sauternes	Sweet	2006	Château d'Yquem, Sauternes 95/100 - The 2006 Yquem, which I last tasted in 2014, continues to be a great Yquem, not quite among the top tier but let's slot it in one level below. It possesses virtually the same aromatics as the last bottle that I tasted at the château: beeswax and lanolin merging with honeyed fruit, dried quince and marzipan. The palate is medium-bodied, viscous, a dash of spice on the entry with very good weight in the mouth. There is still that lovely saltiness on the finish that leaves you begging for another sip - completing a long-term Yquem that is only just finishing its first couple of chapters. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	23140606	37.5	£185.00	10	3

The palate is fresh and crisp, quite assertive and spicy, hints of curry leaves towards the finish that is very complex. This is feistier than its counterpart from Anne-Claude Leflaive, less composed and not quite as much finesse. The sense of lift – near delicacy – here is uncanny in view of its simultaneous ability to caress the palate and to convey a sense of mineral extract. Nor can wafting floral high tones or emerging suggestions of marrow-rich meat stock and noble mushrooms be overlooked in this multi-registered performance, which should continue to be memorably delicious for at least a decade. - David Schildknecht, Wine Advocate	B6566106	75	£66.00	6	6

A wine of great intensity, it boasts thrilling aromas of orange marmalade, nectarine liqueur, honeysuckle, peaches, and apricots. Stunningly rich with full body, terrific acidity, and a finish that lasts 45+ seconds, this is an amazing achievement. Germany	Mosel		Sweet	2010	Scharzhofberger Auslese, Egon Muller 94/100 - ...an elixir of remarkable levity, refinement, and polished textural allure. What's more, the flavors now shift toward honey, white raisin, salted caramel, and quince preserves, unabashedly exhibiting these grapes' noble botrytization. And even despite what I am sure are enormously high acids, these act only as hidden, energizing springs until the finish kicks in with overt citricity that help leaven and balance the wines liqueur-like texture and sweetness. I think we can safely presume a quarter-century's strong performance here. - David Schildknecht, Wine Advocate	C6906110	75	£335.00	6

Italy	Piemonte	Barbaresco	Red	2004	Barbaresco Asili, Bruno Giacosa 98/100 - The 2004 Barbaresco Riserva Asili is even more compelling than the Rabaja. It floats on the palate with an ethereal core of sweet fruit that calls to mind a profound Musigny, but with the unmistakable structure of Nebbiolo. The perfumed purity of the fruit carries all the way through to the deeply satisfying, resonating finish. Made in a soft, seductive style, this remarkable wine is decidedly more approachable and easy to appreciate today than the Rabaja. Giacosa fans will have a great time discussing the merits of the Rabaja and the Asili in 2004, but to me they are virtually equally moving; Asili for its feminine gracefulness and Rabaja for its size and power. The Asili should prove more accessible at an earlier age. Bruno Giacosa says his 2004 Asili Riserva will turn out to be just like his 2000 Asili Riserva, the wine he still thinks is the best he's ever made. Italy	Tuscany	IGT	Red	2014	Le Serre Nuove, Tenuta dell'Ornellaia 90/100 - The 2014 Bolgheri Rosso Le Serre Nuove is a lush and well measured red wine that does not shy back in terms of intensity. Neither does it overachieve in that department. This blend of 34% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Merlot, 9% Cabernet Franc and 7% Petit Verdot marches to a steady pace with good fruit definition followed by spice, leather and fresh tobacco leaf. The wine does flaunt its youth and charm. Spain	North Central	Toro	Red	2011	oro Numanthia, Bodega Numanthia 92/100 - The 2011 Numanthia is a powerful and concentrated Tempranillo with abundant aromas of peat, tar, shoe polish and ripe dark fruit with hints of minerality and a marked earthiness. The palate is warm, with noticeable alcohol that seems to coat the tannins while the acidity is barely enough to provide freshness for such an amount of glycerol. With time, the aromas are clearly from the barrel: dark chocolate, espresso coffee and toasted bread. XXL for sure, for fans of the style. This was another difficult vintage for Dunn. Yields were down a full 50%. In exchange, nature rewarded Dunn with the fruit to make an epic wine that could very well turn out to be a modern-day legend. The 2008 is a huge, towering wine packed with dark fruit, licorice, tar, asphalt and licorice. Layers of perfume are woven throughout this majestic effort. Medium-bodied and elegant, with sweet tannin, copious layers, and a long, intense finish, it tastes more like a 3- to 5-year-old Napa Cabernet rather than one that's a decade old. USA	California	Napa	Red	2003	Philip Togni Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley 95+/100 - For those who don't know, Togni has always made an uncompromising Cabernet meant for 20, 30, maybe even 40 or more years of cellaring. Gorgeously rich notes of black olives, black currants, graphite and wood smoke jump from the glass of this dense ruby/purple-colored, Medoc-styled 2003. At age ten, it displays a youthfulness similar to a 4- to 5-year-old wine. The finish is long, convincing and rich. It is reminiscent of a Spring Mountain version of a hybrid blend of St.-Julien and Pauillac. Unique to Napa and as distinctive as Philip Togni himself, it will benefit from another 4-5 years of cellaring and should last longer than your author. By the way, my cellar includes many vintages of Togni, and I rarely touch them before they hit 15 years of age. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	C8236103	75	£185.00	2	2

USA	California	Santa Cruz	Red	2009	Rhys Pinot Noir, Horseshoe Vineyard, Santa Cruz Mountains 94/100 - The 2009 Pinot Noir Horseshoe Vineyard is the most virile wine in this lineup. Black cherries, mint, iron and crushed rocks come together in this dramatic, generous Pinot. The fleshiness of the fruit nearly covers the tannins, but they are lurking beneath the wine's considerable fleshiness. Menthol, pine and a host of other dark, balsamic notes wrap around the insistent, powerful finish. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024. - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate	B2656109	75	£145.00	2

USA	California	Sonoma	Red	2009	Copain Pinot Noir, Monument Tree 93/100 - The 2009 Pinot Noir Monument Tree is beautifully direct, focused and articulate. Dark red cherries, flowers, smoke and minerals wrap around the palate in this firm, beautiful Pinot. This is one of the more structured wines in the Copain lineup. Today it comes across as a bit virile but the tannins should soften with further bottle age. Darker fruits and floral notes reappear on the finish, adding further complexity and nuance. Plums, mocha, black cherry and menthol notes all make an appearance as this flashy, expressive Zinfandel shows off its considerable personality. Here, too, the wine's creamy texture and impeccable overall balance shine with uncommon elegance. All the elements are in the right place. This is a surprisingly soft wine for Monte Rosso. As such, it will drink well upon release. Readers who prefer tertiary complexity will want to cellar the 2011 for at least a few years.
