Argentina	Mendoza		Red	2005	Magdalena Toso 33 Barrels Established in 1890, Pascual Toso has become one of the most exciting and promising Argentine wineries. Magdalena Toso is a very special selection, representing the best quality of each harvest - a complex, deep and elegant red wine with great finesse. Malbec, combined with a touch of the best Cabernet Sauvignon. - Winemaker's notes	F1756105	75	£49.50	9	9
Australia	South Australia	Barossa Valley	Red	2002	Bishop Shiraz, Glaetzer At its peak: gloriously mature, supple and soft, yet with freshness and vibrancy to the fruit. Refined winemaking in a beautifully-balanced vintage. Drink 2017-2020. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	67826102	75	£45.00	30	30
Australia	South Australia	Barossa Valley	Red	2002	Shiraz, Glaetzer From the 95/100 rated 2002 vintage and the same fruit source (110 year-old, dry-grown vines in the Ebenezer sub-district of Barossa) as Amon-Ra, this was Amon-Ra's predecessor, developed by Colin Glaetzer and gradually replaced by Colin's son, Ben, by Amon Ra. Between 2002 and 2004, the two wines were produced alongside each other. This was excellent when young, and although we have not tasted it recently, it is likely to have similar overall character and even greater concentration, depth, richness, intensity and staying power than the 2002 Bishop, which is drinking beautifully now. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	75736102	75	£69.50	18	18

Australia	South Australia	Barossa Valley	Red	2006	Torbreck Laird, Barossa Valley (Magnum) 99/100 - Deep garnet colored, the 2006 The Laird offers a multi-faceted nose of ripe black berries, blueberry preserves and kirsch aromas with an underlying perfume of baking spices, lavender, cinnamon stick and cloves plus some savory / earthy nuances, including bacon, black tea, tobacco and forest floor. The palate is full bodied and densely packed with fruit, savory and earth flavors while supported by a firm level of very fine-grained tannins and refreshing acidity. It finishes very long and while already incredibly complex, promises a lot more to come. Consider drinking it 2014 to 2026+. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	B3697806	150	£1,203.00	3

Australia	South Australia	McLaren Vale	Red	2005	The Ironstone Pressings GSM, d'Arenberg 94/100 - The 2005 The Ironstone Pressings GSM is superb in this top-notch vintage. It exhibits a fragrant bouquet of mineral, earth, truffle, black cherry, plum, and blueberry. Full-bodied as well full-throttled, it offers an extra dimension of complex spicy blue and black fruit flavors, well-concealed tannin, and a seamless, pure finish. Rich enough to be enjoyed now, it will provide pleasure over the next 20 years. - Jay Miller, Wine Advocate	A7396105	75	£39.50	10
Australia	South Australia		Red	1983	Penfolds Grange 92/100 - A deep garnet hue. Very sweet on the nose like the 1982 but more obvious and less nuanced: cassis and shoe-polish, with iodine developing. The palate is very smooth, a little meaty with blueberry and cassis on the extravagant almost Tuscan-like finish. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	80970183	75	£400.00	1	1

Australia	South Australia	McLaren Vale	Sweet	NV	The Daddy Long Legs Extremely Rare Tawny, d'Arenberg 96/100 - The extraordinary non-vintage Extremely Rare Tawny Port called The Daddy Long Legs emerges from a solera of old tawny made between 1928 and 1984. Its medium dark amber color is accompanied by an amazingly expressive bouquet of fig liqueur intermixed with marmalade, roasted nuts, caramel, and black tea. Unctuously thick yet possessing good underlying acidity, its sweetness is neither heavy nor cloying. This is an explosively rich, aromatic, spectacular fortified wine that is impossible to resist. This rare tawny can be drunk now, or aged for another decade. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	A74932NV	37.5	£255.00	6	6
Australia	Victoria	Rutherglen	Sweet	NV	Rare Rutherglen Muscadelle, Chambers 98/100 - The NV Rosewood Vineyards Rare Muscadelle has a deep brown color with a hint of green in the rim. The nose has a complex, oxidative, almost oloroso character giving notes of roasted walnuts, dark chocolate, burnt coffee and toffee. The palate is so crisp in acidity that the unbelievable level of sweetness and viscosity is infinitely drinkable. Layer upon layer of spice and nut flavors develop into the very long finish. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	635206NV	37.5	£195.00	1	1
Australia	Victoria	Rutherglen	Sweet	NV	Rare Rutherglen Muscat, Chambers 99/100 - Tasted again in March 2016, the NV Rare Muscat has a deep brown color with a distinctive green tinge to the rim. The nose is, in a word, incredible and terribly difficult to describe, which is a great thing. Rancio doesn't begin to capture the complex, oxidative signature: honey coated walnuts, molasses, dates, sandalwood, baking spices, old chesterfields, aniseed and potpourri with fleeting, ethereal wafts of incense, roasted nut and exotic spice notes. Rich, unctuous and gratuitously multi-layered, this is one for the hedonists. - Lisa Perotti-Brown MW, Wine Advocate	635106NV	37.5	£245.00	1	1

France	Alsace	Ribeauvillé	White	1990	Riesling Cuvée Frédéric Emile, Vendange Tardive, Trimbach The 'Vendange Tardive' version of Cuvée Frédéric Emile is an extremely rare wine. Made only in vintages where harvest conditions permit, and then only in tiny quantities, it combines the piercingly bright definition of the bone dry version with vendange tardive rounded sumptuosness (but not overt sweetness). The 1990 Riesling Frederic Emile Vendange Tardive is very ripe and overripe on the nose, clear. Very intense and mineral on the palate with a lot of tension and minerals, as well as grip and phenolics, but also finesse and freshness. Very good length and firm structure. Great grip and length, and slightly austere. - Stephan Reinhardt, Wine Advocate	A3376190	75	£135.00	2

France	Beaujolais	Chiroubles	Red	2014	Chiroubles, Domaine Lafarge Vial The Chiroubles tastes of freshly-picked, juicy strawberries and red cherries and has a soft, easy texture. Just the way a Cru Beaujolais ought to taste! Drink 2017-22. Lafarge Vial is the Cru Beaujolais initiative of famed Volnay vigneron, Michel Lafarge. These wines are some of the best Beaujolais I have tasted, but they MUST be decanted to show their true quality. France	Bordeaux	Castillon	Red	2011	Château Montlandrie, Castillon Côtes de Bordeaux A thrilling offering from proprietor Denis Durantou (who also owns Pomerol's l'Eglise-Clinet), this blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Franc is a surprisingly large-scaled Cotes de Bordeaux Castillon revealing a dense ruby/purple color as well as lots of sweet mulberry, kirsch, black currant, licorice, spring flower and graphite notes. Medium to full-bodied as well as remarkably concentrated, this wine outperforms many of Bordeaux's more famous names in this vintage. A stunner in quality and value, it can be enjoyed over the next 10+ years. It is a sleeper of the vintage. Drink 2014-24 - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	80566111	75	£24.50	2	2
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2005	Château Citran, Cru Bourgeois, Haut Médoc 87/100 - This is an equal-part blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Good, dense fruit as well as some toasty new oak and spice jump from the glass of this dark ruby/purple-colored wine. Approachable and showing well, this 2005 is medium to full-bodied, ripe and very well-made. Drink it over the next 10-15 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6170105	75	£33.50	94	22
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2006	Château Cambon La Pelouse, Haut-Médoc 87/100 - This large vineyard in Macau (near Cantemerle and Giscours, not Hong Kong) produces a blend of 50% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon, 13% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Petit Verdot. It is a consistent choice among shrewd wine consumers looking for good value from Bordeaux. The deep ruby-colored 2006 exhibits sweet red and black currant aromas intermixed with notions of toasty oak, damp earth, and spice. Richly fruity, soft, and round, it is best drunk over the next 3-4 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6150106	75	£26.50	51	51

France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2006	Chateau Sociando-Mallet, Haut Medoc 89/100 - Château Sociando Mallet displayed a lifted and sprightly bouquet with black fruit, scorched earth, fresh mint and smoky aromas - quasi-Pauillac in style. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin and a keen line of acidity, fresh in the mouth with a saline tincture towards the composed finish. There is impressive freshness here, not overly complex for sure, but it conveys energy. Drink now and over the next decade. Tasted April 2016. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	84670106	75	£39.50	3	3
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2007	Chateau Sociando-Mallet, Haut Medoc 87/100 - The 2007 Sociando-Mallet has a pleasing sense of mineralité and delineation on the nose: nicely focused with attractive rose petal scents. The palate is brisk on the entry with rigid tannin, quite savory with a gravelly, masculine and tobacco finish. It's a little rough around the edges, but it should drink well for the next 5-7 years. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	84676107	75	£39.50	7	7
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2009	Les Allées de Cantemerle, Haut Médoc The second wine of Château Cantemerle, this has similar personality and yet is ready to be consumed sooner. In great vintages like 2009, second wines can be really smart buys. At eight years of age, this has matured to soft succulence and subtle spiciness. Drink 2017-2019.	E6160109	75	£29.50	97	61
France	Bordeaux	Haut Médoc	Red	2009	Château Fourcas Hosten, Listrac 17/20 - Full and firm and dramatic. Really nicely balanced. Polished tannins. Appetising. Seems like the sort of wine that should be a pleasure to drink all its life. The best Fourcas Hosten I can remember tasting. France	Bordeaux	Haut-Médoc	Red	2000	Château Cantemerle, Haut-Médoc 17/20 - Still very deep with the merest hint of ruby and paleness at the rim. Very subtle nose – lures you in but there is no hint of overripeness here, rather a hidden message. Fresh and succulent with hints of tea and toast but very subtle ones. France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2004	Château d'Angludet, Margaux 89/100 - I'm not sure this amazing effort doesn't deserve an outstanding score. A big, flamboyant nose of melted licorice, creme de cassis, smoke, and charcoal is accompanied by deep, opulent, fleshy flavors, low acidity, ripe tannin, and abundant glycerin and fruit. Enjoy this sleeper of the vintage now and over the next 12-15 years. It is sexy stuff! - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6140104	75	£45.00	8	8
France	Bordeaux	Margaux	Red	2004	Château Giscours, Margaux 91/100 - It has a very pleasant bouquet with ripe blackcurrant, raspberry coulis, mineral and light violet scents that blossom nicely in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin. This is not a complex Giscours, more conservative and a little austere. Yet you have to commend the freshness and the finesse towards the finish, as it delivers delicate tarry notes on the aftertaste. Drinking perfectly now, you could cellar this for the next 10-15 years.- Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76850104	75	£67.50	11	11

France	Bordeaux	Moulis	Red	2008	Château Chasse-Spleen, Médoc 89/100 - The Chasse Spleen 2008 has an elegant, well-knit bouquet with impressive purity: blackberry, briary, wild hedgerow and a touch of autumn leaves. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, very elegant with expressive Merlot counterbalancing the austerity of the Cabernet. It is a little foursquare towards the finish but is endowed with decent length and fine precision. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	75850108	75	£47.50	69	16
France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2004	Château Pontet-Canet, Pauillac 93/100 - Blackberry, black plum, violets, a touch of undergrowth, liquorice and there in the background is a mote of hoi sin. Superb definition and very refined, developing a candied bouquet with time. The palate is medium-bodied, very pure with superb tension. There are notes of blackberry, cassis, blueberry and bilberry, wonderful balance, but the finish is still tannic and tightly-coiled. France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2005	Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste, Pauillac 97/100 - The Château Grand Puy Lacoste 2005 has a brilliant, classic pencil-lead nose that is Pauillac through and through. There is no messin' about here. The palate is very well defined with wonderful acidity, great depth of black fruit with an astonishingly precise finish that just takes your breath away. Is it the best 2005 of the vintage? Not quite, but it belongs in the top tier. And factor in value for money, I would be happy sitting on a big pile of this in my cellar to drink over the rest of my lifetime and the afterlife if that exists too. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76260105	75	£150.00	6	6
France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2005	Carruades de Lafite, Pauillac 93/100 - This has a deep ripe plummy nose with good definition and freshness: cedar and blackberry, a tangible sense of mineralite but tightly-coiled. A dense weighty palate, great concentration and vibrant acidity, very focused, lithe, wonderful definition with a lifted cedar finish. No frills, but masterful winemaking is afoot here. There is immense weight and presence in the mouth, although I wonder whether the tannins are as fine as say the 2010 or even the nascent 2016 Latour tasted alongside? France	Bordeaux	Pauillac	Red	2006	Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste, Pauillac 94/100 - I raved about the 2006 Château Grand Puy-Lacoste when I tasted it from barrel ten years ago. It has evolved a really quite beautiful, very classic Pauillac bouquet with vivacious blackberry, raspberry and wild mint aromas that deftly absorb the oak. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, perhaps a more forward "GPL" than other vintages, but there is genuine fineness to the tannin and that backward finish has great precision. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76260106	75	£93.50	31

France	Bordeaux	Pessac-Léognan	Red	2008	Domaine de Chevalier Rouge, Pessac-Léognan 93/100 - One of the fabulous sleepers of the vintage and a wine for serious Bordeaux aficionados to consider buying, the 2008 is a blend of 66% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot and 9% Petit Verdot that achieved 13.5% natural alcohol. Surprisingly backward for a 2008, it is medium to full-bodied with moderate tannins, lots of purity and abundant charcoal, black currant and floral notes. The sweetness of the fruit, depth of flavor and textured, lush mouthfeel in this medium to full-bodied, ageworthy 2008 are impressive. Give it 3-4 years of cellaring and drink it over the following two decades. Fleshy, succulent and opulent along the lines of the 2009 (which did surprise me), it is a big wine, with boatloads of glycerin and a classic Graves character of scorched earth, burning embers, charcoal, and plenty of black cherry and black currant fruit. The glycerin level is high, the fruit level impressive, and the purity and texture endearing. Drink it over the next 15 or so years. – Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	C0580110	75	£120.00	1	1
France	Bordeaux	Pomerol	Red	2001	Château Gazin, Pomerol 94/100 - ...possibly the finest Gazin I have ever tasted, the 2001 reveals the best integration of oak at this property in many years. An opaque plum/purple color is accompanied by a glorious bouquet of burning embers, roasted meats, espresso, and sweet plum and blackberry fruit. Richer and deeper than it appeared from barrel, with a tremendous finish, this full-bodied, impressive effort represents a breakthrough for Gazin. There are 6,000 cases of this 85% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 5% Cabernet Franc blend. One of the more backward wines of the vintage. France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2002	Château Ausone, St Emilion 96/100 - This is a beautiful wine. A bouquet surfeit with joie-de-vivre and elan, ripe black cherries, cassis and a touch of damson, but underneath all that precocious fruit is a real, tangible sense of minerality. The palate is silky smooth on the entry with vestiges of creamy oak still to be resolved, wonderful persistency on the licentious finish. Gorgeous! - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76670102	75	£551.00	1
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2003	Chateau Beau-Sejour Becot, St Emilion 91/100 - Attractive notes of black currants, fruitcake, cedarwood and loamy soil intermingled with kirsch and blacker fruits emerge from this dense ruby/purple-tinged 2003. Medium- to full-bodied with fully resolved tannins as well as good freshness and precision, it can be enjoyed over the next decade. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E2190103	75	£62.00	2	2
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2005	Château Yon-Figeac, St Emilion Grand Cru 91/100 - From a 62-acre vineyard on the Pomerol border, planted in the sandy, gravelly sector of St.-Emilion, the final blend of this 2005 was 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc. A strong effort with lots of black cherry and blackcurrant fruit, some licorice and forest floor, the wine is medium to full-bodied, supple, and impressively endowed. The color is a deep, youthful purple/plum. Drink it over the next 10-12 years. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	E6226105	75	£47.50	5	5
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2006	Château Bellevue, St Emilion Grand Cru I was keen to try this, as I had a hunch that with time, the wine would emerge from what Parker described as its 'lean' character in its youth. Tasted in August 2017, the leanness has turned into a defined focus, that brings definition to its maturing gentle spiciness. With a fantastic sense of place, this is a superb wine to drink now and over the next 5+ years. It's also great value. - Tom King, Fine Wine Manager	C0190106	75	£39.50	48	17

France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2007	Château Ausone, St Emilion 94/100 - The 2007 Ausone is a candidate for one of the wines of the vintage, rivaling Pavie and Lafite Rothschild. Its deep ruby/purple hue is accompanied by a beautiful nose of spring flowers, raspberries, black currants, and crushed rocks. The wine is dense, medium to full-bodied, and pure with sweet tannin as well as a surprisingly evolved, forward style. It is one of the few Ausones I have tasted that can be drunk with great pleasure at this stage, yet it promises to evolve for two decades. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	76676107	75	£465.00	5
France	Bordeaux	St Emilion	Red	2008	Chateau Canon, St Emilion 92/100 - Ever since its showing out of barrel, the Chateau Canon 2008 has been on an upward trajectory. Here, it displays fine mineralite on the nose, very precise with black rather than red fruit with great delineation, notes of iodine emerging. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannins, pure dark berry fruit with a touch of spice, focused with a symmetrical finish. This is very assured and just delicious. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	B8890108	75	£99.50	11	11

The nose has certainly closed down since I last tasted it at en primeur, less floral and more tertiary with a surly broody quality. Cedar and a hint of dark chocolate coming through with aeration, roasted herbs. Very well defined. The full-bodied palate is very tannic structure with a solidity that suggests extended cellaring is mandatory. This Cos d'Estournel is powerful and masculine, yet with wonderful freshness and vitality and a slight savoury tang evolving with further aeration on the persistent finish. France	Bordeaux	St. Emilion	Red	2005	Château Monbousquet, St. Emilion 94/100 - A beautiful effort from Monbousquet, this 2005 comes across to me as one of their strongest efforts, with notes of toasty oak, black cherry and blackcurrant fruit as well as some licorice, incense and flowers. Full-bodied and opulent, this is an amazing wine from a terroir on the so-called "wrong side" of St.-Emilion. Drink it over the next 15 or more years. It is an amazing performance. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	80770105	75	£125.00	12	12
France	Bordeaux	St. Estephe	Red	2003	Château Cos Labory, St. Estephe 91/100 - I had forgotten how impressive this was from barrel. There is just a little sur-maturite on the nose: plum, blackberry, a touch of prune in the background. The palate has a soft entry, very plush and generous with layers of toasty black fruit with tar and sous-bois. Soft landing on the finish. Modern in style, but not ostentatious and retaining Saint Estephe typicity. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	76790103	75	£46.50	21	21
France	Bordeaux	St. Estephe	Red	2005	Château Lafon Rochet, St. Estephe 92/100 - This has a fine blackberry, cedar-infused nose with good definition - tightly coiled and certainly needing more time. Very good concentration, fine tannins, quite succulent for a Saint Estephe but very well poised with fine sense of mineralite on the finish. Imbued with femininity, which is unusual. Good depth and cohesion. This remains an excellent Lafon-Rochet although its still needs time. Drink 2015-2025. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	77100105	75	£75.00	32	32

France	Bordeaux	St-Julien	Red	2007	Château Léoville Barton, St. Julien 92/100 - he 2007 Leoville-Barton is more vigorous and fruit-driven than the Langoa, with gorgeous dark berry fruit, wilted rose petals and orange blossom scents that really blossom in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with a sensual, quite rounded opening that belies the structure of this Leoville Barton, armed with black pepper and cedar towards the long finish. This is a Saint Julien that has always threatened to come good and at ten years of age, and it is beginning to take flight. A couple of cases of this in your cellar and you cannot go wrong. Tasted February 2017. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	39960107	75	£82.00	11
France	Bordeaux	Barsac	Sweet	2007	Château Climens, Barsac 98/100 - Chateau Climens always tends to go into its shell after bottling, which is probably why I was not dishing out an even higher score to this still, spellbinding Barsac. The 2007 is endowed with a lovely bouquet: very pure with honey, a touch of orange-blossom and a touch of quince. The palate is very well-balanced with great purity and a dash of spice as well as a lovely viscous, botrytis-laden finish that possesses awesome weight and persistency. France	Bordeaux	Sauternes	Sweet	2003	Château de Fargues, Sauternes 92-94/100 - The nose is quite muted coming after Climens, but the palate has great potential even though it is more backward than other Sauternes. Touches of wild honey, quince and citrus fruit. Lacks a little definition though the finish is very focused and stylish, with apricot, quince and orange peel. France	Bordeaux	Sauternes	Sweet	2005	Château La Tour Blanche, Sauternes 93/100 - The 2005 Château La Tour Blanche has a complex nose with lemon sherbet, orange sorbet, honey and jasmine all soaring from the glass without a care in the world. The palate is medium-bodied with refined tannin, very focused and poised with an elegant, suave finish that has just the right amount of edginess. There is a Barsac-like personality to this La Tour Blanche with a hint of barley sugar on the aftertaste. France	Bordeaux	Sauternes	Sweet	2005	Château d'Yquem, Sauternes 96/100 - Tasted at the property 12 months on from my last visit, my note for the Château d'Yquem 2005 is almost exactly the same. I feel that there is still just a little new oak to be resolved on the nose. But the palate is extremely well balanced, perhaps just a little nuttier than I remember from 12 months ago, with hints of white chocolate and crème brûlée just appearing on the finish. This needs another decade, but it is a very serious Yquem in the making. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	23140605	37.5	£195.00	10	10
France	Bordeaux	Sauternes	Sweet	2006	Château d'Yquem, Sauternes 95/100 - The 2006 Yquem, which I last tasted in 2014, continues to be a great Yquem, not quite among the top tier but let's slot it in one level below. It possesses virtually the same aromatics as the last bottle that I tasted at the château: beeswax and lanolin merging with honeyed fruit, dried quince and marzipan. The palate is medium-bodied, viscous, a dash of spice on the entry with very good weight in the mouth. There is still that lovely saltiness on the finish that leaves you begging for another sip - completing a long-term Yquem that is only just finishing its first couple of chapters. - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate	23140606	37.5	£185.00	10	3

The natural intensity, structure and power of Pommard's wines need a ripe vintage to provide balancing flesh and succulence. France	Champagne		Sparkling	2004	Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill Gift Pack, Pol Roger 95+/100 - An intense golden-yellow color dresses the Pol Roger prestige cuvée 2004 Sir Winston Churchill, which opens with a clear, deep, dense, ripe, fresh, pure and elegant bouquet of matured apples, apricots and lemon flavors along with exciting spicy flavors. Although this Brut is already more than 11-years-old, it is dew-fresh and still developing--slowly. This Champagne is highly complex and well structured on the palate, with grapefruit flavors; it is a full-bodied and intense, yet very firm, persistent, fresh and very elegant assemblage of unnamed Grand Cru Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays. It reveals a very long and complex, powerful but stimulating finish, and obviously, an eternal youth. The finish is powerful and stringent, and reveals a great, great aging potential. The wine is somewhat restrained and too compact at the moment though, and should benefit from a longer bottle aging. Drink 2017-2026. - Stephan Reinhardt, Wine Advocate	G6186104	75	£175.00	16	3

A wine of great intensity, it boasts thrilling aromas of orange marmalade, nectarine liqueur, honeysuckle, peaches, and apricots. Stunningly rich with full body, terrific acidity, and a finish that lasts 45+ seconds, this is an amazing achievement. It should drink well for 7-8 years, shut down or become oxidized, then, hopefully, re-emerge at around age 12-15, and drink in a completely different fashion for several decades thereafter. - Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate	B6786107	75	£106.00	5	5

France	Rhône	South	Red	2015	Rasteau La Bastide, Brusset The 2015 is my first introduction to this wine, and it has serious wow-factor. You get an immediately complex, compact nose of carob bean, malt and fine dark chocolate, opening up to plump black cherry, spice and 'garrigue' herbage. Dense, deep undertow of mushroom and earth – lots going on! In the mouth, it's plump, juicy and very rounded, with lots of flavour concentration, as well as quite some tannic structure. What's more, the flavors now shift toward honey, white raisin, salted caramel, and quince preserves, unabashedly exhibiting these grapes' noble botrytization. And even despite what I am sure are enormously high acids, these act only as hidden, energizing springs until the finish kicks in with overt citricity that help leaven and balance the wines liqueur-like texture and sweetness. Italy	Piemonte	Barbaresco	Red	2004	Barbaresco Asili, Bruno Giacosa 98/100 - The 2004 Barbaresco Riserva Asili is even more compelling than the Rabaja. It floats on the palate with an ethereal core of sweet fruit that calls to mind a profound Musigny, but with the unmistakable structure of Nebbiolo. The perfumed purity of the fruit carries all the way through to the deeply satisfying, resonating finish. Made in a soft, seductive style, this remarkable wine is decidedly more approachable and easy to appreciate today than the Rabaja. Giacosa fans will have a great time discussing the merits of the Rabaja and the Asili in 2004, but to me they are virtually equally moving; Asili for its feminine gracefulness and Rabaja for its size and power. The Asili should prove more accessible at an earlier age. Bruno Giacosa says his 2004 Asili Riserva will turn out to be just like his 2000 Asili Riserva, the wine he still thinks is the best he's ever made. Made in a rich, almost opulent style for this wine, the 1999 displays heady aromas of roses and sweet fruit, along with a more full-bodied profile than the 2001, with generous amounts of ripe fruit, outstanding length, exquisitely well-integrated tannins and a finish that lasts forever. Italy	Piemonte	Barolo	Red	2013	Barolo di Serralunga d'Alba DOCG, Fontanafredda 92/100 - The 2013 Barolo Serralunga d'Alba is a wine of heft and power. This is a site-specific expression that reflects the darker colors, aromatic intensity and firmer tannic structure that can be achieved specifically in this township. The wine impresses for its focus and finesse. A greater percentage of barrique is used because the fruit had the dense fiber and broad shoulders to support that extra oak. Serralunga d'Alba became its own Barolo sub zone in 1988. Like the many vintages made since then, this wine makes a bold statement on the unique qualities that define this celebrated Barolo sub zone. - Monica Larner, Wine Advocate	08476113	75	£32.00	344	43
Italy	Piemonte	Barolo	Red	2013	Barolo DOCG, Sori Ginestra, Conterno Fantino 96/100 - The 2013 Barolo Ginestra Vigna Sori Ginestra shows a whole other level of fiber and textural richness. This is a stunning wine from thicker soils that deliver more structure, firmness and overall depth. With that superiore richness, the wine is also endowed with balanced acidity, plump primary fruit and an elegant touch of balsam or menthol herb on the finish. This drives the finish forward for a few long and glorious minutes. Dig deeper still, and you find a sweet note of chocolate hazelnut. - Monica Larner, Wine Advocate	24066113	75	£60.00	223	2
Italy	Piemonte	Barolo	Red	2013	Barolo Cannubi, E. Pira 95/100 - The 2013 Barolo Cannubi is a fine and sculpted wine that has benefitted from the cool vintage conditions and the long growing season. The wine shows a very pretty nose with wild berry aromas followed by pressed rose, ash, wild mint, tea and earthy black truffle. It shows fine tannins that are slightly camouflaged by the generosity of the fruit. The Cannubi cru offers extreme elegance and finesse. Despite those svelte contours, this wine is built to last. - Monica Larner, Wine Advocate	30886113	75	£60.00	42	24

Italy	Tuscany	IGT	Red	2003	Sassicaia, Tenuta San Guido 93/100 - Ample, sweet and expansive, the 2003 Sassicaia offers generous notes of sweet dark fruit intermingled with notes of spices, herbs, earthiness and smoke in a full-bodied, opulent expression of this wine. It is an outstanding effort for the vintage. Some cellaring is suggested although with air this wine is drinking beautifully right now. Italy	Tuscany	IGT	Red	2005	Sassicaia, Tenuta San Guido 93/100 - The 2005 Bolgheri Sassicaia is more of an extrovert and a fast-burner. It is a reflection of a warm vintage and a more pronounced stylistic signature in terms of its winemaking approach. The effect is very beautiful, indeed, with dried cherry, plum, spice, tobacco and grilled herb. Yet, the overall messaging is focused on power and volume. The background music is hard to hear. Despite its opulence, there's less dimension to behold. Brawn trumps finesse and dark fruit covers the ethereal aromas. It is well built, however, and should hold steady for the next ten years, if not more. - Monica Larner, Wine Advocate	20600105	75	£239.00	1	1
Italy	Tuscany	IGT	Red	2014	Le Serre Nuove, Tenuta dell'Ornellaia 90/100 - The 2014 Bolgheri Rosso Le Serre Nuove is a lush and well measured red wine that does not shy back in terms of intensity. Neither does it overachieve in that department. This blend of 34% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Merlot, 9% Cabernet Franc and 7% Petit Verdot marches to a steady pace with good fruit definition followed by spice, leather and fresh tobacco leaf. The wine does flaunt its youth and charm. Italy	Tuscany	Montalcino	Red	2007	Brunello di Montalcino Riserva, Fattoria dei Barbi 93+/100 - Barbi's 2007 Brunello di Montalcino Rivera explodes from the glass. A rich, heady wine, the 2007 captures the essence of the vintage in its sensual personality. Layers of expressive dark fruit blossom in a large-scaled, voluptuous wine bursting with personality. Firm tannins support the rich, enveloping finish. Barbi-s 2007 Riserva captures the richness of the year while maintaining quite a bit of freshness and structure. This will be an interesting wine to follow over the coming years. Anticipated maturity: 2015-2027. - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate	23966107	75	£75.00	37	1
Italy	Tuscany	Montalcino	Red	2012	Brunello di Montalcino, Il Poggione 95+/100 - Il Poggione is a Brunello superstar and a vintage like this reveals every reason why that affirmation is true. From the second the 2012 Brunello di Montalcino pours into the glass, you know you are in for something special. The wine is darkly saturated and rich in appearance. Absent are those slightly amber or browning hues you often get with Sangiovese in a hot vintage. Nor does the wine show flat or tired characteristics. Instead, the quality of fruit is vibrant and rich. This is a healthy, generous and exuberant Brunello with dark density and succulent fruit flavors that are followed by integrated spice and tobacco. The balance is impressive and one thing you get here is fresh acidity. This is not to be underestimated, because the acidity quota in the 2012 vintage across the appellation is not as high or evident as usual. This is one of the year's best Brunellos. - Monica Larner, Wine Advocate	30526112	75	£32.50	420	51

The palate follows suit with lovely balance and poise in the mouth, notes of kirsch, shaved ginger and walnut building to an opulent, viscous finish that lacquers the mouth. Portugal	Douro		Port	2007	Graham's Vintage Port 97/100 - A candidate for wine of the vintage, the 2007 Graham's Vintage Port is complete in every way. Opaque purple-colored, it offers up an ethereal perfume of smoke, mineral, Asian spices, incense, an amalgam of ripe black fruits, and a hint of chocolate in the background. This leads to a dense, super-rich, plush, opulent wine that hides its structure under all the fruit. Vibrant, impeccably balanced, and exceptionally lengthy, it will easily age for another 25-30 years in the cellar and drink well through 2050, probably longer. Medium-bodied and elegant, with sweet tannin, copious layers, and a long, intense finish, it tastes more like a 3- to 5-year-old Napa Cabernet rather than one that's a decade old. USA	California	Napa	Red	2003	Philip Togni Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley 95+/100 - For those who don't know, Togni has always made an uncompromising Cabernet meant for 20, 30, maybe even 40 or more years of cellaring. Gorgeously rich notes of black olives, black currants, graphite and wood smoke jump from the glass of this dense ruby/purple-colored, Medoc-styled 2003. At age ten, it displays a youthfulness similar to a 4- to 5-year-old wine. The finish is long, convincing and rich. It is reminiscent of a Spring Mountain version of a hybrid blend of St.-Julien and Pauillac. Unique to Napa and as distinctive as Philip Togni himself, it will benefit from another 4-5 years of cellaring and should last longer than your author. Country	Region	Sub Region	Type	Vintage	Wine	Code	Bottle size (cl)	Bottle price	Total bottles	Bath shop bottles
USA	California	Santa Cruz	Red	2009	Rhys Pinot Noir, Horseshoe Vineyard, Santa Cruz Mountains 94/100 - The 2009 Pinot Noir Horseshoe Vineyard is the most virile wine in this lineup. Black cherries, mint, iron and crushed rocks come together in this dramatic, generous Pinot. The fleshiness of the fruit nearly covers the tannins, but they are lurking beneath the wine's considerable fleshiness. Menthol, pine and a host of other dark, balsamic notes wrap around the insistent, powerful finish. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024. - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate	B2656109	75	£145.00	2
USA	California	Sonoma	Red	2011	Bedrock Wine Co. Zinfandel Monte Rosso Vineyard 92/100 - Bedrock's 2011 Zinfandel Monte Rosso is pure seduction. Plums, mocha, black cherry and menthol notes all make an appearance as this flashy, expressive Zinfandel shows off its considerable personality. Here, too, the wine's creamy texture and impeccable overall balance shine with uncommon elegance. All the elements are in the right place. This is a surprisingly soft wine for Monte Rosso. As such, it will drink well upon release. Readers who prefer tertiary complexity will want to cellar the 2011 for at least a few years. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2031. - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate	B2176111	75	£85.00	3	3
USA	California	Sonoma	Red	2013	Kistler, Pinot Noir, Cuvee Natalie, Silver Belt, Sonoma 95+/100 - The 2013 Pinot Noir Silver Belt Cuvée Natalie, from another Sonoma Coast site, shows darker fruits, more meat, black cherries and black raspberries with underbrush and spice. This should drink well for 5-7 years... There have been several noticeable changes in the Kistler wines over the last few years, as they are certainly picking the Pinot Noir at an earlier date and going for less extraction, more fragrance and delicacy. - Robert Parker, Wine Advocate	B6926113	75	£195.00	6
